

What to Bring with You

(For those who attend the First, Second and Third Unit)

- Cot, mattress, bed linens, and blankets are provided.
- You may kindly bring with you your writing materials, a note book, (torch-light), medicines, towel, toilet article, and 100 A4 papers.
- It is good to take into account incidental expenses like, for example, for participants of the basic course going by town bus or share auto to the hospitals in the town for field work as part of their requirements.
- You may use whatever dress is convenient for you.

Information for the Participants of the Advanced Course

(For those who attend the Second and Third Unit)

- The participants of the Advanced Course are requested to acquaint themselves with general psychology, developmental psychology, and clinical psychology.
- For these three subjects there will be library books provided at The Fountain.
- But it may be good that the participants possess for themselves a copy of the books
